Jossy Do It leads all the way in the $50,000 Hallowed Dreams Stakes at Evangeline Downs

Opelousas, Louisiana—Jossy Do It ($25.80) went right to the front and never looked back en route to an easy win in the $50,000 Hallowed Dreams Stakes for three-year-old fillies at Evangeline Downs Racetrack & Casino on Saturday evening. Breaking quickly under veteran jockey Eddie Martin Jr. the Florida bred daughter of Proud Accolade was able to establish a clear early lead and despite setting quick fractions of 21.81 & 45.11 was never challenged while winning by more than five ½ lengths over Ada Mae and race favorite My Lady Lauren. The running time for the 5 ½ furlongs on a main track labeled fast was 1:03.92.

Winning jockey Eddie Martin Jr. stated “She was nice and relaxed and just flew out of there when the gates opened. I called on her at the top of the stretch and she kicked away from them.”

Waldo Girl checked in fourth, followed by Fleet Dawn, Pursuitofparadise, and I Dare U Em. Vegas Baby Vegas and Caroline Dehere were scratched.

Owned and Trained by David Wolochuk, Jossy Do It was making her Evangeline Downs debut and the victory, her third in ten career starts was worth $30,000 and pushed her lifetime earnings past the $78,000 mark.

Racing continues on a four-evening a week schedule, Wednesday thru Saturday with a post time for of 5:40 pm, Central Time.
