Ten Dollars

Moscow Mule

A refreshing cocktail that became popular during the vodka craze of the 1950's, made with vodka, ginger beer, lime and a sprig of mint. Kudos to the Russians

Grasshopper

Smooth as silk, made of vodka, green crème de menthe, crème de coco and fresh cream, topped with crushed Andes mints. Originated in the New Orleans French Quarters during the 50's and 60's

Gentleman Jack Old Fashioned

The classic cocktail mixed with Gentleman Jack Whiskey, Angostura bitters, simple syrup, muddled with a cherry and an orange wedge

Honey-Bourbon Toddy

House infused Woodford Reserve bourbon with flavors of cinnamon, apple and honey served with hot tea

Butterscotch Eggnog

House-made eggnog flavored with butterscotch, garnished with whipped cream and a cinnamon stick

Spiced Apple Sangria

Bollini Pinot-Grigio infused with cider, apple, orange, cinnamon, cloves, allspice and finished with ginger beer garnished with fresh thin sliced apple
