LETTERS TO THE GM

To the Magic Vegas Trio:

This is a belated note of appreciation to the Trio Team of Vacations Hawaii, Boyd Gaming Corporation and Omni Air. Mahalo for making our quick vacation ... when we were able to get away from baby sitting grandchildren ... very pleasant, affordable, and fun.

It was during this vacation that we had an 'Aha' moment about the entertainment, food and services offered by the Magic Vegas Trio ... the Three Amigos! This was evident from the time we left Honolulu until the time we returned. The Aha is that you all offer Senior Citizens in Hawaii a great way to get away without really being 'away.' At the Market Street Restaurant in The California, we saw several seniors ... often in their 90's ... waiting in line with their family members. Sometimes it was a daughter or son ... at other times a grandchild was there to escort them with the group to their table. Distance from the rooms to the restaurant was doable. Food was familiar and tasty. Service was good and as the window sign advertised, they spoke "Aloha". Going through the casinos you could see the seniors comfortably playing at the machines and on the mezzanine, there even were some machines with coins for the die-hard coin users!

Regarding the airport and air travel, we went by coach on March 21. Despite not riding Premium, we were treated with Premium care. Checking in was easy and then, while waiting, we could chat with any number of other passengers, often people we knew from years ago! We had very friendly and service-oriented attendants on the way over. On our return, March 25, there was an older man in the row back of me who had a bad leg cramp. He was in pain, moaning loudly. A young, tall, strong and soft-spoken young attendant went to his aid. He softly calmed the passenger, pulling him up so that his legs would be extended. I am not sure what he was doing but there was soft-spoken coaching going on, a drink obtained and the moaning and panic in the passenger's voice eased into a grateful flow of thanks. The attendant's caring and responsive behavior was gold! We also had food and beverages throughout the flight so that by the time we arrived, we really were not hungry, despite having passed dinner by Hawaiian time. There was just enough of everything so that we were comfortable.

Vacations Hawaii and our escort, Fred Mata, serviced the group with care and ease. Reminders were given. Information was repeated about check in, etc. The escorts are aware that many of the passengers are seniors and they gear their comments and services to facilitate their movement for a safe and pleasant vacation. My husband and I like the fact that we don't have to think much. We are escorted to the buses. We check in and then our luggage is taken care of. Check out routines are made as easy as possible when we leave. We can focus on eating, playing, sleeping, meeting friends and family, making friends, and having a nice time in the 9th island of Hawai'i.

My husband and I took in two shows on the Strip while we were there. We saw Rock of Ages at the Venetian and Terry Fator at the Mirage. Both shows were excellent and we enjoyed the rush of the bigger casinos; however, we could only tolerate the crowd, the noise, lights, the immense size and area of each casino for a couple of hours. Being seniors ourselves, these casinos were an overload of our senses ... and pocketbooks! This was not Downtown! This was for the YOUNGER crowd!!!

So, thank you for a very pleasant vacation. More important, thank you for having the business sense to provide local people, especially the senior citizens, a place to visit that is away from home without being away from home. Thank you for making the trip as pleasant as possible, considering the time involved and the inconvenience of today's air travel. Thank you for extending the hospitality and aloha from Hawai'i to Nevada. Thank you for hiring people who support these values. Maika'!

Sincerely,
Nohea and Louis

Dear Management,

This letter encompasses multiple trips to acknowledge those who stood out and deserve to be recognized. First, and foremost, is ROBYN CORDOVA who has been my contact hostess for many years. Even to this day, I keep learning new things from her vast knowledge and experience. She is efficient and professional, but it's her warmth that adds the "Aloha" to everything she does. Chona also helps me when Robyn is off (another GEM).

Next is FREDDY, at the front desk, who is always helpful in securing our room, especially when we bring my mom (86) along with us. He takes our needs and requests into consideration when assigning us a room.

SALLY, from reservations, was very friendly and helpful. ABBY, "Let It Ride" dealer, kept things exciting on our last trip. Stephanie (pit boss) cheered our wins and supported us in our losses.

Always great to see TEDDY, server at Market Street Cafe. We make a point to say hello when we see him because he goes back a long time to our early days. Great worker! Also, on one trip, there was PATRACE, who cheerfully served us and frequently checked on our needs.

One night, we dined at Pasta Pirate and were served by BEATRIZ and NICOLE. We usually have a large group with us but this time it was just my husband and I and they both provided a wonderful dining experience. On our last trip, at Pasta Pirate, we were lucky enough to have Nicole again. That night, it looked like she was tending to most of the dining room by herself. Though busy, she maintained her patient and, most importantly, pleasant demeanor.

In closing, I wish to thank the many unnamed people, from cashiers to housekeeping to dealers to marketing/promotions (love the offers). The "Aloha" that Mr. Sam Boyd instilled at the Cal lives on and continues to bring us back, always looking forward to our next trip.

Much success in this year of the Horse! Also, thank you for the Christmas card. MAHALO!
