In order to take the add-on, players must have at least one (1) remaining starting chip in front of them. Once a player loses all of his/her starting chips, their only option to remain in the tournament is to re-enter. Re-entries are allowed through the end of the first break only. Those wishing to re-enter will be placed back into the tournament promptly, as long as seats are available. If an alternate list exists, those wishing to re-enter will be placed at the bottom of the alternate list. Management reserves the right to modify or cancel this schedule and structure at its sole discretion and without prior notice.
