

2019 Dog Days of Summer Entry Form

Saturday, August 31 – Belterra Park Cincinnati – Held at the conclusion of live racing

About the event – There is an 80 wiener dog limit to registration. Entrants compete in 10 - dog heats. There will be two races of ten dogs that will feature any dog breed weighing under 25 pounds that will race for fun and will receive no prizes. A helper holds the dog and the owner lines up at the finish line (approximately 20 yards away). After the dogs are released, the first to cross the finish line wins the heat and is entered into the final showdown race of 8 winners. There are prizes for the top three overall winners. The event is for entertainment purposes only. Dogs are allowed on the grounds during racing and are restricted to the east end of the grandstand for the safety of the horses and riders during live racing. There are vendors on site for dog adoption/rescue and various pet products. General parking and admission to live racing and Dog Days of Summer is free.
