2014 DELTA DOWNS JACKPOT STORY & PAST WINNERS

OCHO OCHO OCHO WINS DRAMATIC $1,000,000 DELTA DOWNS JACKPOT

The 2014 edition of the $1,000,000 Delta Downs Jackpot (Gr. III) was won by DP Racing, LLC's Ocho Ocho Ocho with Hall of Fame jockey Mike Smith in the saddle. The race was one of the most dramatic in track history as Ocho Ocho Ocho and Mr. Z battled headlong through the entire stretch before Ocho Ocho Ocho reached the finish line just a nose in front of his tenacious rival.

Sent to Delta Downs from Southern California by veteran trainer James Cassidy, Ocho Ocho Ocho entered the Jackpot off a maiden-breaking victory and an impressive stakes tally, both at Santa Anita and each from post position #2. When he won the Jackpot he started from post position #10, which continued a streak of three consecutive years that the winner of the race began his journey from an outside post position.

Smith's trip with Ocho Ocho Ocho was one to remember, but it was also significant for another reason as it kept his local record perfect at three-for-three. He also won the Delta Downs Princess in 2003, with Salty Romance and the Treasure Chest Stakes aboard Yahilwa two races before his score with Ocho Ocho Ocho last year. Overall, Smith's career includes nearly 5,300 wins and over $267 million in mount earnings.

Although Ocho Ocho Ocho's running time of 1:45.47 for 1-1/16 miles in the Jackpot was not a record, fans did pour a track record amount of $5,203,535 through the wagering windows during the 11-race Jackpot Day program in 2014. That amount represented an increase of 3.1% over the $5,044,286 wagered on Jackpot Day in 2013, which also set a record at that time.
