14. The games selected for the Sunday games will be the game with the greatest chance of being televised. Once the televised game starts, the squares will remain associated with that game, even in the event of the game no longer being televised.

22. In the event a game is cancelled before the completion of the first quarter for any reason, then all names on the board will roll over to the following week and the prize amount on the quarters will remain the same.
